LENTEN SERVICE FAIR – MARCH 14

Need odd jobs done around the house? Winter cleanup? Baby-sitting? Dog walking or other services? Let one of our talented and hard-working youth members help you while supporting our upcoming trip to the Dominican Republic. Look for the sign-up table at the back of the Church and at Coffee Hour next Sunday, March 14.

LENTEN ADULT ENRICHMENT – MARCH 14 & 21

Speaking the Truth in Love: Christian Conversation – Words have the power to heal and the power to hurt. Much of the real violence that occurs in our midst is verbal rather than physical. As Christians committed to embodying God’s love, how do we talk with one another, especially when we are feeling strong emotions such as anger, hurt, fear, or sadness? Healthy, constructive communication is a special skill that must be learned and practiced. For the Sundays in Lent, join Russ Bohner in Parish Hall A from 10:00 to 10:50 AM for an in-depth discussion of the particular and practical characteristics of Christian speech.

DURUFLÉ’S REQUIEM – MARCH 28

The Christ Church Choir, with instrumental ensemble, will perform Maurice Duruflé’s Requiem on Palm Sunday, March 28, at 5 PM in the Church. Be sure to mark your calendars!

MARCH OUTREACH COLLECTION

We are partnering with La Comunidad Hispana to provide food and Easter treats for low-income Hispanic families in the Kennett Square area. Please bring your food donations of tortillas, rice, pasta, dried beans, canned tomatoes, and corn to the collection bins in the Church or Parish Center. You may also contribute $15 toward grocery gift cards to be used for fresh food such as meat and produce. Make checks payable to Christ Church and mark “Easter dinner.” Another option is to pick up an Easter egg for a child at Coffee Hour on March 7 or 14. Then return a basket with treats for them to the coat room in the Parish Center near the circle drive. We ask that all donations be completed by Monday, March 29.

EASTER VIGIL WATCH – APRIL 3-4

As part of our observance of Easter, Vigil Watch will be kept in the Church from sunset on Holy Saturday, April 3 until sunrise on Easter morning, April 4. We’ll keep watch throughout the night, tending a sacred fire and making prayers in the silent and darkened church. Our efforts will form a bridge of watchfulness from the Order of Compline and the lighting of the fire at sunset until the clergy commence the first of the Easter Day services with the Great Vigil of Easter. Please contact Kris Younger (kris@youngers.org or 234-8229) to schedule an hour (or more) of contemplative and restorative vigil.

UPCOMING BAPTISMAL SERVICES – APRIL 4 & 25

Baptismal services will be held on Easter Day, April 4 at 6 AM for older children and adults and on Sunday, April 25 at 9 AM for those of all ages. Preparation meetings for parents and godparents will be held on Saturday, April 3 at 9 AM and on Saturday, April 24 at 10 AM in the Church. Please contact Jane Rubini in the Church Office at 655-3379 or jrubini@christchurchde.org to arrange for a baptism at one of these services.

HOST FAMILIES NEEDED – APRIL 9

Christ Church will host the outstanding Girls’ Choir from the Cathedral and Abbey Church of St. Alban, along with the gentlemen of the Cathedral Choir, for a one-hour concert on Friday, April 9 at 7:30 PM in the Church. We will have 22 girl choristers ranging in age from 9-14, 12 men of the choir, along with adult chaperones—for a total of 41 needing housing for the evening. If you are able to host two or more students in your home the night of April 9, please contact Jane Rubini (655-3379 or jrubini@christchurchde.org) to sign up. We expect that hosts can pick up their guests late in the day on April 9, enjoy having them with their family for an early dinner, and return them to church by 7 PM to prepare for their concert. You’ll take them home again after the concert and return them to Christ Church mid-morning on April 10 for the bus ride to their next venue.

THE FIRST READING: EXODUS 3:1-15

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up." When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." Then he said, "Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground." He said further, "I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob." And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God. Then the Lord said, "I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt." But Moses said to God, "Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?" He said, "I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain." But Moses said to God, "If I come to the Israelites and say to them, 'The God of your ancestors has sent me to you,' and they ask me, 'What is his name?' what shall I say to them?" God said to Moses, "I Am Who I Am." He said further, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'I Am has sent me to you.'" God also said to Moses, "Thus you shall say to the Israelites, 'The Lord, the God of your ancestors, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob, has sent me to you': This is my name forever, and this my title for all generations."

THE SECOND READING: I CORINTHIANS 10:1-13

I do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters, that our ancestors were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea, and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea, and all ate the same spiritual food, and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank from the spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ. Nevertheless, God was not pleased with most of them, and they were struck down in the wilderness. Now these things occurred as examples for us, so that we might not desire evil as they did. Do not become idolaters as some of them did; as it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and they rose up to play." We must not indulge in sexual immorality as some of them did, and twenty-three thousand fell in a single day. We must not put Christ to the test, as some of them did, and were destroyed by serpents. And do not complain as some of them did, and were destroyed by the destroyer. These things happened to them to serve as an example, and they were written down to instruct us, on whom the ends of the ages have come. So if you think you are standing, watch out that you do not fall. No testing has overtaken you that is not common to everyone. God is faithful, and he will not let you be tested beyond your strength, but with the testing he will also provide the way out so that you may be able to endure it.

THE HOLY GOSPEL: LUKE 13:1-9

At that very time there were some present who told Jesus about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices. He asked them, "Do you think that because these Galileans suffered in this way they were worse sinners than all other Galileans? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish as they did. Or those eighteen who were killed when the tower of Siloam fell on them—do you think that they were worse offenders than all the others living in Jerusalem? No, I tell you; but unless you repent, you will all perish just as they did." Then he told this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came looking for fruit on it and found none. So he said to the gardener, 'See here! For three years I have come looking for fruit on this fig tree, and still I find none. Cut it down! Why should it be wasting the soil?' He replied, 'Sir, let it alone for one more year, until I dig around it and put manure on it. If it bears fruit next year, well and good; but if not, you can cut it down.'"

COLLECT OF THE DAY

Almighty God, you know that we have no power in ourselves to help ourselves: Keep us both outwardly in our bodies and inwardly in our souls, that we may be defended from all adversities which may happen to the body, and from all evil thoughts which may assault and hurt the soul; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

9:00 AM PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

Gathered by the Holy Spirit and renewed in the Word, let us pray to God for the needs of the world, using all our voices. Sometimes the children will lead part of our prayer, sometimes another group. Each prayer ends with everyone saying, "Hear our prayer." Let us pray. [brief silence]

Gracious One, heal our divisions, increase our understanding, and help us truly realize that we are one in the body of Christ.

Men: Help us to be your Church, O God.

All: Hear our prayer.

Holy One, fill the church and its leaders with patience and courage, especially Rowan, Katharine, Wayne, and our clergy.

Children: Help us to be like your Son, O God.

All: Hear our prayer.

Sovereign One, we pray for the leaders of government, especially our president Barack, that they may be filled with your truth and serve your whole creation.

Women: Help us to live in peace, O God.

All: Hear our prayer.

Sheltering One, defend the weary, guard the children, shield the joyous, that all who are innocent or powerless may know your protection.

Men: Help us to show your love, O God.

All: Hear our prayer.

Healing One, hear the cries of all who are afflicted, sick, or in pain, especially N. Let them know your love.

Children: Help us to serve the suffering, O God.

All: Hear our prayer.

Everlasting One, we pray for those who have died, especially N., and for the people who miss them.

Women: Help us to trust in your cross, O God.

All: Hear our prayer.

Celebrant: In you, Gracious and Everlasting One, we find our wholeness and strength. Hear the prayers of your people, offered in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
