CHRIST CHURCH CHRISTIANA HUNDRED

WELCOME!

We are glad you are with us today as we worship God and receive Christ's presence given to us in the sacrament of bread and wine. This service is offered by livestream for those who cannot assemble with us. Wherever you are on your spiritual journey, you are welcome here.

HOLY EUCHARIST, RITE II

WE GATHER IN THE LORD'S NAME

Voluntary

Welcome and Announcements

The Rector welcomes all to worship, concluding

Each year Christians gather in worship to remember the days when Jesus came to Jerusalem just before his death on the cross and his resurrection to new life. Our worship today unfolds the story of that awesome and awful week. We welcome you to enter into our worship as if you were there. Imagine the hills around Jerusalem and all the roads leading up to the Holy City crowded with pilgrims coming for the feast of the Passover. His triumphant entry was a fulfillment of Zechariah's ancient prophecy.

Please stand, as able, for

The Opening Acclamation

Celebrant Grace, mercy, and peace be with you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

The People joyously reply

And also with you.

The Prophet Zechariah Foretells the Triumphant Entry

Zechariah 9:9-10

Rejoice greatly, O daughter Zion! Shout aloud, O daughter Jerusalem! Lo, your king comes to you; triumphant and victorious is he, humble and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey. He will cut off the chariot from Ephraim and the warhorse from Jerusalem; and the battle-bow shall be cut off, and he shall command peace to the nations; his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.

The Blessing of the Palms

Celebrant Since the fourth century, Christians have been remembering the day Jesus rode into Jerusalem to shouts of joyful praise. The palm branch was a sign that you had made a pilgrimage to Jerusalem, and to honor this day, people cut branches from their yards to join in a triumphant procession, even when they lived far away or in a different age. In the ninth century, a Christian wrote a song for the day, but now we sing it in English. We bless these branches of palm and raise them high to show that Jesus is our King, as we sing, "All glory, laud, and honor."

The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise!

Celebrant It is right to praise you, Almighty God, for the acts of love by which you have redeemed us through your Son Jesus Christ our Lord. On this day he entered the holy city of Jerusalem in triumph, and was proclaimed as King of kings by those who spread their garments and branches of palm along his way. Let these branches be for us signs of his victory, and grant that we who bear them in his name may ever hail him as our King, and follow him in the way that leads to eternal life; who lives and reigns in glory with you and the Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

Celebrant Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord!

People Hosanna in the highest!

All sing

Hymn 154 All Glory, Laud, and Honor

WE LISTEN AND RESPOND TO THE WORD OF GOD

Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray. Almighty and everliving God, in your tender love for the human race you sent your Son our Savior Jesus Christ to take upon him our nature, and to suffer death upon the cross, giving us the example of his great humility: Mercifully grant that we may walk in the way of his suffering, and also share in his resurrection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

The First Reading

Isaiah 50:4-9a

The Lord God has given me the tongue of a teacher, that I may know how to sustain the weary with a word. Morning by morning he wakens—wakens my ear to listen as those who are taught. The Lord God has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, I did not turn backward. I gave my back to those who struck me, and my cheeks to those who pulled out the beard; I did not hide my face from insult and spitting. The Lord God helps me; therefore I have not been disgraced; therefore I have set my face like flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame; he who vindicates me is near. Who will contend with me? Let us stand up together. Who are my adversaries? Let them confront me. It is the Lord God who helps me; who will declare me guilty?

At the conclusion the People respond, "Thanks be to God."

The Choir sings

Psalm 118:1-2, 25-29 Confitemini Domino

Chant: Sir George Thalben-Ball (1896-1987)

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his mercy endures for ever.

Let Israel now proclaim, "His mercy endures for ever."

Hosanna, Lord, hosanna! Lord, send us now success.

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord;

we bless you from the house of the Lord.

God is the Lord; he has shined upon us;

form a procession with branches up to the horns of the altar.

"You are my God, and I will thank you; you are my God, and I will exalt you."

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his mercy endures for ever.

The Second Reading

Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus, who, though he was in the form of God, did not regard equality with God as something to be exploited, but emptied himself, taking the form of a slave, being born in human likeness. And being found in human form, he humbled himself and became obedient to the point of death—even death on a cross. Therefore God also highly exalted him and gave him the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend, in heaven and on earth and under the earth, and every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

At the conclusion the People respond, “Thanks be to God.”

Please stand and sing

Gradual Hymn 156 Ride on! Ride on in Majesty!

The Gospel Reading

Mark 11:1-11

Priest The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

When they were approaching Jerusalem, at Bethphage and Bethany, near the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples and said to them, “Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately as you enter it, you will find tied there a colt that has never been ridden; untie it and bring it. If anyone says to you, ‘Why are you doing this?’ just say this, ‘The Lord needs it and will send it back here immediately.’” They went away and found a colt tied near a door, outside in the street. As they were untying it, some of the bystanders said to them, “What are you doing, untying the colt?” They told them what Jesus had said; and they allowed them to take it. Then they brought the colt to Jesus and threw their cloaks on it; and he sat on it. Many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others spread leafy branches that they had cut in the fields. Then those who went ahead and those who followed were shouting, “Hosanna! Blessed is the one who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our ancestor David! Hosanna in the highest heaven!” Then he entered Jerusalem and went into the temple; and when he had looked around at everything, as it was already late, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.

Priest The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Celebrant Let us affirm the creed of baptism, saying

People I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord.

He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the Virgin Mary.

He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried.

He descended to the dead. On the third day he rose again.

*He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again to judge the living and the dead.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic Church,
the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins,
the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.*

The Prayers of the People

We pray for the Church, the world, and all in need.

Holy God, we pray for the church throughout the world. Assist us that we may boldly proclaim Christ as Savior and follow him as the Lord of life. In your mercy,

Lord, hear our prayer.

Mighty God, we pray for our president, Joe, and all those in positions of power in government and commerce. Guide them to right choices for the sake of all who are weak and lead all nations into the way of mercy and peace. In your mercy,

Lord, hear our prayer.

Merciful God, we raise up all who are broken in body, mind, and spirit, for those in any need or trouble. In this moment we remember them before you and ask your healing love. [In the silence, offer prayers to God for those in need or trouble.] Open our hearts that we may minister to them in the name of Christ. In your mercy,

Lord, hear our prayer.

Everlasting God, we pray for those who have died in war or terror, in poverty or disease. We remember loved ones departed this life. [In the silence, offer prayers to God for loved ones departed.] Bring them to the joy of heaven and keep us in the way that leads to eternal life. In your mercy,

Lord, hear our prayer.

O Lord our God, accept the fervent prayers of your people; in the multitude of your mercies, look with compassion upon us and all who turn to you for help; for you are gracious, O lover of souls, and to you we give glory, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, now and for ever. Amen.

The Confession of Sin

Celebrant Let us confess our sins against God and neighbor.

People *Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone.
We have not loved you with our whole heart;
we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves.
We are truly sorry and we humbly repent.*

For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Celebrant Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

The Great Thanksgiving

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth. Through Jesus Christ our Lord. For our sins he was lifted high upon the cross, that he might draw the whole world to himself; and, by his suffering and death, he became the source of eternal salvation for all who put their trust in him. Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Please stand or kneel as the Celebrant continues the prayer, inviting our acclamation of Christ's sacrificial death and triumphant resurrection,

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

Celebrant and People

Christ has died. Christ is risen. Christ will come again.

The Celebrant continues the prayer, concluding

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ. By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever. Amen.

The Celebrant invites the People to say the prayer Jesus taught his first disciples.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

The Choir sings the anthem at the breaking of the bread, which is Christ's Body, broken for us. Be seated after the sacrament is presented.

Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.	Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: miserere nobis.	Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: have mercy on us.
Agnus Dei, qui tollis peccata mundi: dona nobis pacem.	Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world: grant us peace.

All are welcome to receive the sacrament of Christ or a blessing. Come up the center aisle and take your place along the altar rail, kneeling or standing. If you desire a blessing, cross your arms over your chest to indicate your intent. Receive the host in open hands. Gluten-free host is available; let the clergy know your need when they approach you. When you are presented with the cup, drink from it or dip the bread carefully into the cup and consume in both kinds together. If you do not wish to receive the cup, please cross your arms to indicate your intent, but wait for the minister to pass you before you leave the rail. Please use the side aisle to return to your pew. If you are unable to come forward, ask an usher to let the clergy know, and communion will be brought to you.

Communion Anthem

Sir Edward Elgar (1857-1934)

Ave verum corpus natum ex Maria Virgine, vere passum immolatum in cruce pro homine. Cujus latus perforatum vero fluxit sanguine; esto nobis praegustatum mortis in examine, O Clemens, O Pie, O dulcis Jesu, Fili Mariae.	Hail, true Body born of the Virgin Mary, on the cross was Thy body torn for us. Out of Thy pierced side did flow sacred blood; feed us with Thy broken Body now, and in the time of our death, O merciful, O holy, O sweet Jesus, son of Mary.

The Post-Communion Prayer

Celebrant In thanksgiving, let us pray.

People Almighty and everliving God, we thank you for feeding us with the spiritual food of the most precious Body and Blood of your Son our Savior Jesus Christ; and for assuring us in these holy mysteries that we are living members of the Body of your Son, and heirs of your eternal kingdom. And now, Father, send us out to do the work you have given us to do, to love and serve you as faithful witnesses of Christ our Lord. To him, to you, and to the Holy Spirit, be honor and glory, now and for ever. Amen.

Please be seated for the telling of the Passion, until you are invited to stand.

For more information or to volunteer to assist with this week's Holy Week and Easter adornment, please contact Amy Johnson or call the parish office at (302) 655-3379.

TODAY IS PALM SUNDAY

On this day, the church remembers when Jesus entered Jerusalem, cheered by those who hoped for the restoration of God's kingdom. We echo that joy in blessing palm branches and processing through the Church. Then the mood changes as we follow his journey to the cross. This whole story is called the Passion of our Lord, for its message is of his suffering, which offers us redemption from sin and death and gives new life in resurrection joy.

Contact Jane Rubini to volunteer.

CHORAL EVENSONG – APRIL 7

Choral Evensong will be offered on Sunday, April 7, at 4 PM in the Chapel with the Christ Church Choir and will include music by Howard Helvey, Sarah MacDonald, and Peter Aston. Lunch will be served in the Parish Hall after the 12 PM Eucharist in the Chapel, followed by the performance. Just as the “camera obscura” reveals worlds through a pinhole, Camera Oscura will reveal the hidden worlds of 17th and 18th century chamber music. This event is sponsored by the Elder Ministry, but all ages are welcome. Bring a friend for worship, conversation, a light lunch, and this unique performance. A suggested donation of $8 to help defray the cost of lunch is appreciated. Click here to RSVP.

A SCREENING OF THE PHILADELPHIA ELEVEN – MAY 1

Christ Church Christiana Hundred and St. Barnabas' Episcopal Church will co-sponsor a screening of The Philadelphia Eleven on Wednesday, May 1, at 6 PM in Christ Church's Parish Hall. In an act of canonical disobedience, a group of women and their supporters organized their ordination to become Episcopal priests in 1974. The Church of the Advocate in Philadelphia welcomed them, but change was no small task. After the ordinations, the women experienced hostility as well as encouragement. This feature-length documentary tells the story of these women who succeeded in building a movement that transformed the Church. One of the Philadelphia Eleven, the Rev. Nancy Wittig, will be with us for discussion following the screening. Join us in celebrating the 50th anniversary of the ordination of women to the priesthood. Click here to RSVP.
